ENVIRONMENT AND THE SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGE

DR. JOHN HOLDREN, KEYNOTE SPEAKER

John P. Holdren

On Friday, April 11th the Cary Institute will be offering a special public lecture by Dr. John Holdren, a global expert in energy policy and climate change. His talk will discuss how sustainable practices can benefit the well-being of all of the world's people. Topics will include understanding how humans impact environmental conditions, managing resource competition, and solving the energy-economy-environment-dilemma.

Holdren is the Director of The Woods Hole Research Center and the Teresa and John Heinz Professor of Environmental Policy at Harvard University. He also serves as Co-Chair of the independent, bipartisan National Commission on Energy Policy.

Free and open to the public, the lecture will be held in our Auditorium, located at 2801 Sharon Turnpike in Millbrook, NY. Questions? Please contact Pamela Freeman at (845) 677-7600 ext. 121 or e-mail freemanp@ecostudies.org.
