

Graphic by Peter Summerlin, used by permission under licensing from Wikimedia Commons

Water salinity is a measure of the amount of salt in a given amount of water. It is measured in units of PSU (Practical Salinity Unit). This is equivalent to parts per thousand or to g/L